Dear Supportive Christian,

I am thankful to God for saving and calling me to serve Him here in Kenya. I am also very thankful to you for being partners with me with your support in prayers, finances, and thoughtfulness. Our gracious Lord is not unjust to forget your labor of love to the saints, Heb. 6:10.

Kenya: The political climate seems to have stabilized after the post-election violence that almost tore our country into tribal fragments. It got resolved with a coalition government. We praise the Lord that the coalition government seems to be working and we Kenyans owe it all to God.

Special Visit: The month of September had a special highlight. Yuri Iwaniuk is visiting with the Mestlers and I. I graduated the same year with Yuri from International Baptist College in Tempe, Arizona and we had a lot to talk about. By the end of his one-month visit with us, Yuri will have preached in five churches here in Nairobi.

Ministry and Outreach: On the Sunday Sept. 21st I was preaching about King Saul's failure for disobeying the Lord (1 Sam. 15). In my view this was not an evangelistic sermon, but who can limit our God? At the end, a young man (11 years old) called Andrew Castro responded to the invitation for Salvation. During counseling, my eyes welled up with tears as Castro prayed in a sincere simplistic way possible "God take me as I am ..." Our God does save Castro's too, ha ha! I already scheduled Castro with another young man, Philip for discipleship. I am thankful he is demonstrating a great desire for the Word. Last Sunday, I talked with him and looked through his note pad that he carried to church. He had written down a lot of notes from the preaching that day. Please pray for his growth.

Bible Institute: This term, I am teaching African Traditional Religion (ATR). Many Africans are stuck in their belief system and sometimes it may not be easy to evangelize them without a good understanding of ATR. We have had good discussions. In our Saturday Institute, we are doing the book of Revelation.

Praises

- Castro's Salvation
- Peace in Kenya
- Kenya's openness for the Gospel

Please Pray

- Castro's growth
- Souls for Jesus
- God to burden us for Souls

Your brother in Christ,
